The Peninsula Art League (PAL) is a tax-exempt, non-profit organization founded in 1980. Spearheaded by John Judkins, our first president, and a small group of artists, PAL's original purpose was to promote art in the greater Gig Harbor area. Today, PAL sponsors the Gig Harbor Summer Arts Festival, Member Shows, Workshops and a Juried Regional Art Exhibition. We also provide scholarships for adults and high school students and present noted artists as speakers at our general meetings, held the fourth Thursday of most months.

General Info: Membership is open to persons 18 years of age or older.
Annual dues are $35.00. / Household membership: $45.00
The year runs from October 1 through September 30.
If you pay dues in June or later, you are paid for the coming year.

Membership Benefits:

Members receive our monthly newsletter, a printed directory and discounts at PAL-sponsored events. In addition, members can be included in our web-based Member Gallery, are eligible for scholarships and can exhibit at our member shows, after meeting screening requirements. Screenings are held before each show, and once completed, are acceptable for the life of the membership. Members who have not screened previously in a chosen media and who wish to exhibit in that media should bring three items for each chosen media, properly framed and wired for hanging (as applicable). Screening and show dates are announced at our monthly meetings, in our newsletter and on our website.

Contact information for PAL committee chairs is found in the Membership Directory (obtainable at the monthly meetings), and on the 'Contact Us' page on our website at www.peninsulaartleague.com
